August 2016

ADVENTURE
YACHT HARBOR

DAYTONA BEACH, FL

All month long we will be saying good-bye to our dear friend and Harbormaster, Jim Boren, as he moves on to another chapter in his life. We will ALL miss Jim! Mark your calendar for Jim's last day here - Wed., August 31, from 4pm - 7pm as we will toast his retirement with beer, wine and snacks at the Harbor Office.

Charlie & Sheryl

DON'T MISS IT!
Wed. Aug 31, 4-7pm
Come share a beer and a story with Jim Boren in the Harbor Office.

AYH Fishermen Strike Big!

Congratulations to Team Costa for taking a second place win in the Northeast Florida Kingfish Shootout! As a month-long tournament, from June 16 to July 16, 2016, all fisherman picked their three days to fish, and all fished the last day too. The winning boat caught 107.79# of fish altogether, and our Team Costa took second with 103.7#. Shown here on the final day with their kingfish and an 82# Wahoo. Congrats to all! www.kingfishshootout.com

Boondocks Annual Closure

Boondocks Restaurant will be closing for the last two weeks in September for their annual cleaning and tune up (that's right- not December). Closing dates will be Monday, Sept. 19 through Thursday Sept. 29, reopening on Friday, Sept. 30.

Hurricane Preparedness

What happens to your boat is directly proportionate to the prep you put into readying for the storm. If the storm passes off shore of us we will see a strong easterly wind, then as it passes to our north we see a strong north wind. Those two by themselves are not the bad part, it is the storm surges and tides. The tides make it hard to calculate the dock lines required. When the tide is full flood, the boats are all loose in their slips but as the tide falls the boats hang from the dock lines. We recommend using two sets of lines, the normal and a looser set to accommodate for water/tides.

Rope – you can't have enough, small for lashing items down.

Battery Power – all power will probably be turned off due to high tides. Make sure your batteries are fully charged. Batten down the hatches, if it can go home take it home.

Trash Talk

The barrels around the marina are for "household trash". If you have something larger please take it to the dumpster.

The Shrimp Are Running

Shrimping season is upon us, and the boats in the river north of Dunlawton Bridge are reporting good catches. Get the net out and practice your toss. Good Luck!

To all my AYH & Boondocks friends~

On Sept 1 I will be leaving my position as Harbormaster at Adventure Yacht Harbor.

Thank you all for making my life at AYH great for the past 17 plus years. I will be starting a new career as a Bed and Breakfast owner on the Caribbean coast of Panama. I have made a ton of friends over the years, some of which I will know the rest of my life. A special thanks to Charlie and Sheryl for keeping me on after their purchase of the marina. While I will miss my colleagues and the crew at Boondocks, I am looking forward to this new challenge and starting a new phase of my life. Please keep in touch, I can always be reached on one cell or the other 386-547-0524 or Panama 011-507-624-42126.
