

The Scuttlebutt

OCTOBER 2011

We are happy to announce the barge is gone! The new seawall, sidewalk, rail and B-Dock gate in front of Boondocks and the Boaters Lounge is safe and looking good. The next phase for that area will be a new roof on the boaters lounge building (no barge) along with a new north end on A Dock. These were big, necessary improvements and we thank you for your patience!

SAVE THE DATE Beer-Can Chicken Party! Saturday, Nov. 12, 2011 6:00-10:00pm

(6-7pm Happy Hour, 7pm Dinner)

Join us Harbor-side as we enjoy the traditional "beer-can" chickens, DJ music and the fellowship of your AYH boaters. Please bring a dish of your favorite side or dessert to share. Beer and wine will be provided. Look for the tent, the music, and wear your dancing shoes, as I'm told the dance floor is the Handicap parking spot!

Trash Talk The garbage cans around the marina are for household trash. If you have something bigger, please put it in the dumpster.

Boat Lifts Are Available

We currently have four boat lifts for sale by their owners. Please contact the marina office for information- they will not last long.

The Blue Marlin Mystery

The marlin that sat on top of the fish display board 12 feet in the air for the past fifteen years thru countless storms and hurricanes was recently replaced. The new one was up about a month and a thunderstorm slapped her right off the mount. After a 12 foot or so fall it needs a slight makeover and will return shortly thanks to Rick Hardy, taxidermist, 386-228-3525.
