

The Scuttlebutt

January 2018

Happy New Year! We hope one of your Resolutions is to enjoy your boat even more in 2018! We resolve to do all we can to make your marine experience as great as it can be!

Charlie, Sheryl, Jeff, Steve & Stacy

Bill LaMachia from B-dock was spotted recently enjoying a sail down the Halifax River on his boat "Ebb Tide". Looking good, Bill!

The White Pelicans Are Back

A large flock of White Pelicans have returned to winter in our area, and can be seen near the inlet on sandbars. One of North America's largest birds, the American White Pelican is distinctive for its 9-foot wingspan, conspicuous white body, and large bill and pouch. Look for them on your next boat trip!

Winter-time Wahoo on display at Adventure Yacht Harbor.

Winter Wahoo Season

Florida's continental shelf off of Daytona Beach offers some of the best wahoo fishing in the world. And now is the time to catch them! Wahoo are one of the fastest swimming fish in the ocean and in the cooler months they jump clear out of the water, often as high as a flying bridge! The action happens some 42 nautical miles offshore on the continental shelf. It's the big curve and steep drop off that attracts good numbers of wahoo. Contact us for a local fishing charter that can get you in on the action!

A Nautical New Year's Resolution

- Get the "green" off the boat
- Clean out the stuff that never gets used - donate it or bring it to storage.
- Make your "fix-it" list, yes, that includes assigning time frames to get it done!
- Tidy up the dock area around the boat..."what doesn't fit in the box, doesn't stay on the docks."

All Our Ducks In A Row

It's a new year, and time to tidy up. As stated in your Dockage contract, all vessels must maintain liability insurance and have a current copy on file with the Harbor Office at all times. Please check your records and confirm we are up-to-date, as well as current with contact information - cell phone, home phone, mailing address, email address, and a current credit card on file. Thank you in advance!
