

The Scuttlebutt

MAY 2019

Mother's Day & May flowers~ we're ready for it all.. not to mention the dolphin bite! Seen the white butterflies around? Sure sign the Dolphin are not far behind. (Mahi-Mahi for us folks who like to eat them). Enjoy Spring!

Fishing Season Is Coming!

Some of the Charters boats have been busy, but this month is when the action really gets going... the season we wait all year on as the dolphin and kingsfish come swimming on by. The cobia came and went last month, they were spotted around rays a-plenty! Be sure to become part of the action either on your own boat or on one of our many Charter options.

The White Butterfly- Mythology, Legends and Tales

This is the month we see the white butterflies around our area... Here in Florida we know it's prime dolphin fishing time! But also...

- The Native American Zuni Indians of the Southwest believe that when white butterflies are seen, the summer is near and hot weather is coming.
- In Louisiana, if a White Butterfly makes a sudden appearance in the home means that good luck will follow.
- In Chinese symbology, a white butterfly symbolized the soul of a departed love one, angels are watching over you and you are being protected.
- If a white butterfly crosses your path or enters your home, it will bring good luck and is a sign that you will have a good life.
- If the first butterfly of the summer season is white, it will be rainy summer.
- To catch and keep a white butterfly is considered lucky--but it is considered even more lucky to set it free!

Local fishermen Austin and Cole Ferguson took advantage of the Cobia run last month and had some great success. Congrats Guys!
